

Is Your Workplace

RELOCATING?

Find transportation help now!

CommuteInfo is a resource for employers

As the regional ridesharing organization of Southwestern Pennsylvania, CommuteInfo is a uniquely designed non-profit, committed to helping commuters in the region learn more about their commuting options.

Relocation can be a stressful time for employees. CommuteInfo can help you anticipate transportation challenges and concerns as well as develop strategies for solutions.

By promoting transit, vanpool, carpool, biking and walking, CommuteInfo can help your employees become more comfortable with new modes of transportation. We can even start making ridesharing matches before your move!
