CommuteInfo Connections - February 2016

Find Your (Commuting) Match!

Think of us as the cupid of ridesharing.
Find your commuting match this Valentine's Day.
commuteinfo.org | 1-888-819-6110

CommuteInfo works like an online dating service for commuters. While we don't guarantee dinner and a movie, we do try to match you up with another commuter based on the information we receive from you! And, to ensure you match with people really interested in sharing the ride, we clean out our database twice a year.

So this February, find a ridesharing match for the first time, or update your information for a more current list!

Healthy Ride Open Data Shown in Maps

As the regional ridesharing organization for Southwestern PA, CommuteInfo is an advocate for biking options as well as ridesharing and transit. For commuters in the city of Pittsburgh, Healthy Ride bikeshare is a wonderful new addition to the "transportation portfolio."

When Healthy Ride graciously made their data open, the Southwestern Pennsylvania Commission was excited to be able to visually represent that data, allowing everyone to see what a boon Healthy Ride has been for the city of Pittsburgh.
