CommuteInfo Connections - October 2015

October 5th - 9th is Drive Safely Work Week!

Happy 2015 Drive Safely Work Week from the Network of Employers for Traffic Safety (NETS) and CommuteInfo!

This year's campaign, #PlanAhead: Your Key to Driving Safely, underscores the fact that planning may be the most critical leg of any journey. This campaign will help you minimize risks on the road and offer resources to help you become a better planner for both business and personal travel.

Each day, you'll find information posted to CommuteInfo's Facebook Page (follow us at Commuteinfo.org). The daily areas of emphasis will help you:

- Remember to take time to plan your journey -- even those that feel routine
- Prepare for driving situations that take you into unfamiliar areas
- Take precautions to ensure you're driving with a clear head
- Communicate with others in your pool about how to make an inclement weather plan
- Learn how 'Journey Management' can help simplify your day

While you're on our page, we encourage you to share tips on how you keep your commute safe with the greater CommuteInfo community! Don't have Facebook? No problem. Email us and we'll be happy to send you the information.
