CommuteInfo Connections

January 2018

Start the New Year with a fresh start! Consider sharing your ride in 2018. It's great for the environment and your wallet. So much easier than diets or exercise regimens (or so we have been told).

Sign up here and receive your Commute Options Report TODAY.

What to Know Before You Go!

Check your winter emergency travel kit.

Know the weather condition before heading to work or school by listening to the weather and travel advisories.

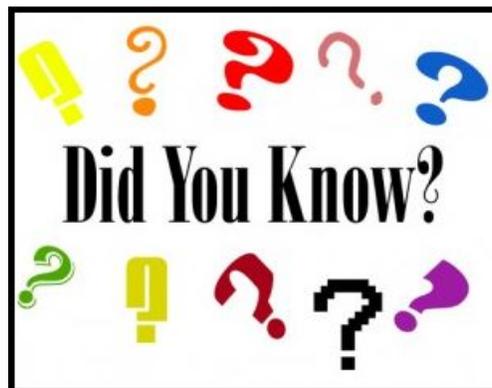

For the Southwestern Pennsylvania region PennDOT has a user friendly website or application for cell phones, check out their website for more information at <http://www.511PA.com>.

Don't forget your cell phone!

Always remove any snow or ice from your hood, roof, and windows.

Tell someone where you are going and when you expect to arrive.

Always wear your seat belt.

New Year, New Challenge. New Ways to Compete, Save, and Win. The Pittsburgh Green Workplace Challenge is now the Sustainable Pittsburgh Challenge, a yearlong, free, and friendly competition for businesses, nonprofits, universities, schools, and local governments in southwestern Pennsylvania to track their sustainability actions and receive positive recognition for their achievements.

The Challenge provides a road map for sustainable business practices that meets organizations where they are—whether an organization is new to sustainability or more advanced in its practices. Sixty organizations have signed up to date.

- Among many benefits, participation helps organizations:
- better manage utility expenses;
 - create positive, diverse and inclusive work environments;
 - connect with people and resources;
 - and capitalize on processes to save money by reducing waste, energy and water use.

The CommuteInfo team has partnered with Sustainable Pittsburgh in determining commuter emission reductions based on employee participation, help employees begin and maintain new alternative comm ons. Not sure what your alternative commuting options may be give CommuteInfo a call or sign-up online and receive your FREE commuting options report TODAY and consider participating in this ye competition.
