Is Your Workplace RELOCATING?

Find transportation help now!

CommutInfo is a resource for employers

As the regional ridesharing organization of Southwestern Pennsylvania, CommutInfo is a uniquely designed non-profit, committed to helping commuters in the region learn more about their commuting options.

Relocation can be a stressful time for employees. CommutInfo can help you anticipate transportation challenges and concerns as well as develop strategies for solutions.

By promoting transit, vanpool, carpool, biking and walking, CommutInfo can help your employees become more comfortable with new modes of transportation. We can even start making ridesharing matches before your move!
